Donna: Hi, my name's Donna.
 Simon: Ah, hello Donna, nice to meet you.
 Donna: Nice to meet you, too – erm – er ... what's your name?
 Simon: Oh, sorry – it's Simon, Simon Smith. Cheers.
 Donna: Cheers.
 Donna: That's funny – you're Simon Smith and I'm Donna Jones. There's something on television called Smith and Jones, I think.
 Simon: Yes, I think you're right. Smith and Jones – two detectives. Erm – where are you from Donna? Now ... I think you're from America – is that right?
 Donna: Yes, that's right. I'm American – from Chicago.
 Simon: Ah, Chicago – a great place.
 Donna: Yes, and you – where are you from?
 Simon: Oh, I'm from down under ... from Sydney, Australia ... that's my city!
 Donna: Oh, tell me about Australia ... is it always warm and sunny or ...

(R = receptionist, W = woman)

R: So that's fine then. Can I have your name, please?
 F: Yes, it's Lynda ...
 R: Sorry, can I have your surname first, please?
 F: Oh, yes, of course. It's Dwightman.
 R: Oh can you spell that, please?
 F: Yes, it's D W I G H T M A N.
 R: D W I G H T M A N – is that right?
 F: Yes, that's right ... and my first name is Lynda with a Y.
 R: And your address?
 F: It's 9 Bank Street, in London. That's London SE7 3DL.
 R: Let me read that back to you: 9 Bank Street, London FE
 F: No – no SE ... S for Sandra ..
 R: Oh, thank you ... SE7 3DL. And your phone number?
 F: 020 – 731 8456.
 R: Thank you ... and your mobile number
 F: No – no mobile.
 R: Oh? No mobile?
 F: No.
 R: Well, can I have an email address – for if we want to contact you?

F: Yes, it's Ldwight – that's L D W I G H T at hotmail.com.
 R: That's okay then – thank you. Oh, one last thing ... what nationality are you?
 F: Why do you need to know that?
 R: It's for the statistics – the tourist statistics.
 F: Oh, Ok – I'm Canadian.
 R: Canadian. Thank you. Well, that's all. See you soon ...

Right, so I want to tell you about my town and where you can find the buildings and places in it. First, the school – the school is in School Lane, of course. Next to the school, on the corner of School Lane and Station Road, there's a bank. And next to the bank there's a very big cinema. That's very nice. Opposite the bank, on the other corner of Station Road and School Lane, there's a bookshop, and next to the bookshop there's a pub ... it's an Irish pub called The Dubliner. The station is opposite the bookshop and the pub. Next to the station there's a park, and in the park there's a small café – very nice. There's a very big supermarket next to the station, too ... on the other side. Erm ... next to the pub there's a hotel and opposite the hotel, on the corner of Park Street and Station Road, you can find a restaurant. It's new, it's Italian, I think. There's a Post Office in Park Street next to the restaurant and next to the restaurant in Station Road, there's an art gallery. It's a very nice town – my town.

Unit 2 Part A: 4b (p. 25)

- 1 Is the pub in Station Road?
- 2 Is there a leisure centre in Station Road?
- 3 Is there a station in this town?
- 4 Is the hotel next to the station?
- 5 Where's the hotel?
- 6 Where's the school?
- 7 Where's the bookshop?

Unit 2 Part B: 4a (p. 31)

Hi, I'm Dan and I'm your guide for today. Here's our station – the Grand Central. It's a beautiful station. This part of New York is very busy – 24 hours a day.

Here you can see MoMA, that's the Museum of Modern Art – fantastic art museum. Here you can see one of our famous Barnes and Noble bookshops. There are 16 Barnes and Noble shops in New York. And here you can see our very special department store called Macy's. Shopping there is great. Here we are at Central Park – every New Yorker loves it. Now we're on Fifth Avenue – a very famous and exclusive shopping street – there are a lot of millionaires here. There aren't any small bars near here – only classy restaurants ... for millionaires ... not for you and me. This building is our very famous opera house – the Met. Do you have any famous opera houses back home? Oh my, you're from Australia. Well yes, there's a famous opera house there, too. So, now we can go straight ...

Unit 3 Part A: 4 (p. 37)

My name's Danielle. I'm thirteen years old and I live in a place called Ipswich – that isn't very far from London. We've got a small house but my family's small, so that's okay. I've got a brother, he's twelve years old but I haven't got any sisters. My mum and dad are fantastic. My mum is like a sister to me – we go to the shops and sometimes to the cinema together. I've got two grandmas but I haven't got any grandfathers. My mum's father is dead, and my dad's father – well, I don't know really.

Hi, I'm Becky ... oh, (little giggle) sorry, that's Rebecca. I'm fourteen and I live near Ipswich. I haven't got any brothers or sisters ... but I've got a lot of friends. I'm happy to say that some of my friends have got big families. At home, there's only my mum and me. My dad isn't here in Ipswich with us. He's in Scotland, in Glasgow ... I think. But my mum's mum and dad live in the house next to us. My grandma is great – they've got hundreds of books and films in their house. We've got a small house with a small garden. The best thing about our house is that it's next to my grandma's house!

Unit 3 Part B: 4 (p. 43)

- 1 A: Oh, look at Anita. She looks great, doesn't she?
 B: Yes, that's fantastic on her.
 A: Yeah, the colour is perfect with her hair ...
 B: And, of course ... it looks really good on her because she's tall and ...
- 2 A: We can ask Alicia.
 B: Do you think she can do that?
 A: Alicia? Yes, of course. She can do everything.
 B: Huh?
 A: Well ... not everything ... but Alicia is very clever and I'm sure she can ...
- 3 A: And Tom? Do you think he can help?
 B: Tom? Oh, no – I don't think so.
 A: Why not?
 B: Well he is a good cook ... but for twenty people. I think that's a bit too much.
 A: Hmm ...
- 4 A: But there are always millions of people at the airport.
 B: Yes ... but look ... here's a photo ...
 A: What? That photo must be ten years old.
 B: Yes, you're right ... she hasn't got brown hair now – I think it's red ... or maybe blonde ...
 A: An ...

Hi, my name's Jack Clements and my wife, Sabine, and I have got a house in a small town near London. Our house is in Wyndham Road – erm that's Wyndham – _W Y N D H A M ... Our house is on a corner, it's number 18, 18 Wyndham Road. Wyndham Road is very nice. There's a French restaurant in our road and there's a small park opposite our house and in the park there's a very nice small café. Now, our town is a small town, there aren't any very big shops here. There's a supermarket near the station, but it isn't very big – the supermarket I mean, not the station. Hey, you can come here and see our town. Phone me – my phone number is 01923 739886 ... have you got it? 01923 739886.

Situational responses Part A

- 21 Hello again, nice to see you again. How are you?
22 Oh, hello – I'm Diana, Diana Steele from Paris.
23 Oh, really. I'm from Germany, too. I'm from Munich – are you from there, too?

Situational responses Part B

- 24 Excuse me.
25 Excuse me, can you help me? Erm, is there a post office near here?
26 Thank you.

(I = interviewer, J = Jill)

- I: Where do you live?
 J: I live in Wantage.
 I: Do you work?
 J: Yes, I do. I'm a PA.
 I: Do you like your boss?
 J: My boss? Oh, yes – David is very nice.
 I: What time do you get up?
 J: At about 7 o'clock in the morning.
 I: Do you have breakfast in a café?
 J: In a café? Oh, no. I have breakfast at home.
 I: Do you go out for lunch?
 J: Out for lunch? No, I don't, I have lunch in my office.
 I: What do you do after work?
 J: After work I go home, or I go to the pub or to my yoga class.
 I: When do you go to your yoga class?
 J: The class is on Mondays. At 6.30.
 I: Do you go to a pub in Wantage?
 J: Yes, I do.
 I: And do you have dinner in the pub?
 J: No, I have dinner at home.

Unit 4 Part B: 4a (p. 57)

(J = Jill, S = Susie)

- J: I know you like your new job Susie, but what do you do in the evenings?
 S: Well, on Monday evenings I go to my Italian course – I like that a lot. The people there are very nice. And then I go to bed at about half past ten. In fact, I go to bed at about 10.30 on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

- J: And on Tuesdays. Do you go out on Tuesdays, too?
 S: No, I don't. I stay at home all evening on Tuesdays.
 J: And what time do you go to bed?
 S: Oh, I don't know. And then on Wednesdays I have dinner with my mum at her house. That's good, She's a very good cook.
 J: Oh, that's nice. And what do you do on Thursdays then?
 S: I go to a yoga class at the sports centre.
 J: Oh? Yoga – is it interesting?
 S: Yes, it is. I like it. And then on Fridays I go out with friends to a restaurant or we go dancing.
 J: And what time do you come home on Fridays?
 S: Oh, about half past eleven ... or sometimes a bit later.

Unit 4 Part B: 4b (p. 57)

- 1 What time does Susie's Italian class start?
2 Does Susie go out on Tuesdays?
3 What time does Susie come home from her mother's house on Wednesdays?
4 Does Susie go to her yoga class on Tuesdays or Thursdays?
5 Does Susie go out on Friday evenings?

Unit 5 Part A: 3b (p. 63)

(J = Jill, D = David)

- J: Have you got any brothers or sisters, David?
 D: No, I haven't. But I've got some good friends. My best friend is an old school friend called Paul.
 J: Does he live here in Wantage, too?
 D: No, he doesn't like Wantage at all. No, he lives in the centre of London. He likes the big city. It's important that he lives near his work.
 J: What does he do?
 D: He works in a very big hospital in London. His wife works there, too. They live very near the hospital.
 J: What do they do at the weekends? Do they stay in London or go to the countryside?
 D: They stay in London because they work at the weekends ... not every weekend but two or three times a month.
