Making language matter.

Dear Teacher,

The world we live in today is a very different one to not so long ago. We have all had to adapt the way we work and communicate. One of the biggest changes has been in teaching online. Students access their lessons online more and more. Lessons have a different feel to them, but the learning never stops. Going digital brings interesting new possibilities for education, making teaching and learning even more varied and exciting.

With this ever more connected world, we at DELTA Publishing have been creating resources and tools to provide a more interactive learning experience. The DELTA digital portfolio is expanding with new courses on the DELTA BlinkLearning LMS and the DELTA Augmented App. These make teaching online a much easier and more engaging experience, both for you and your students.

DELTA Publishing courses incorporate the 5 Cs of 21st century learning – communication, cooperation, creativity, critical thinking, and cultural awareness. The new course On Point for adults is available in print and online in an LMS version and offers a well-proven approach to language learning that requires minimal planning and has a clear layout that is easy to navigate. Bloggers is the course for teens who are looking to be connected to the world. Bloggers from around the English-speaking world bring together all the elements of the 5 Cs in a communicative and creative way that will fully engage your students and make English matter to them.

Connecting you to English around the world

TEENS CEFR A1 – B1 • 4 levels

Bloggers is the new four-level course for lower secondary teens. The course follows the blogs of a group of teenagers from English-speaking cities around the world such as London, New York, Dublin, Los Angeles and Glasgow and engages students with relevant and culturally-specific subjects. Each unit provides students with a challenge that gives a real sense of achievement.

Bloggers has been written by teachers who know what students want and need in their course.

Modular units

- Easily scalable
- Well-balanced grammar progression, including regular revision
- Strong focus on building vocabulary and communication
- Adaptable project-based approach

Insightful cultural foundation

- Units focused on young speakers of English in their world
- Simple cultural questions running through each chapter
- Many authentic documents and an emphasis on oral comprehension

Multimodal approach

- Each unit starts with a video
- Multidisciplinary approach
- Fully adapted to dyslexic students/students with a reading disorder

Task-based approach

- Task-based and project-based learning with achievable mini-challenges and a wrap-up challenge at the end of each unit
- Clear objectives for every unit
- Motivating springboard into the Workbook environment

Bloggers: How does each unit work?

The culture blog...

The opening double page...

The main character of the unit who presents their city and the topic that you're going to deal with.

The objectives of the unit, and above all your challenge! This is the task that you're asked to carry out, and which we're sure you'll be able to do.

A simple question about a specific aspect of the English-speaking world. The unit will equip you with the tools to be able to respond.

Two activities to familiarise you with the subject and revise what you've learned.

A video that shows you the city and the topic.

The heart of the unit...

A broad variety of authentic and interesting input (texts, videos, audios, images...).

Need help to express yourself? Use the prompts or the examples in blue.

Games, because you always learn better when you're having fun!

A mini-challenge (= project work or task) to get you started on the path to the final challenge.

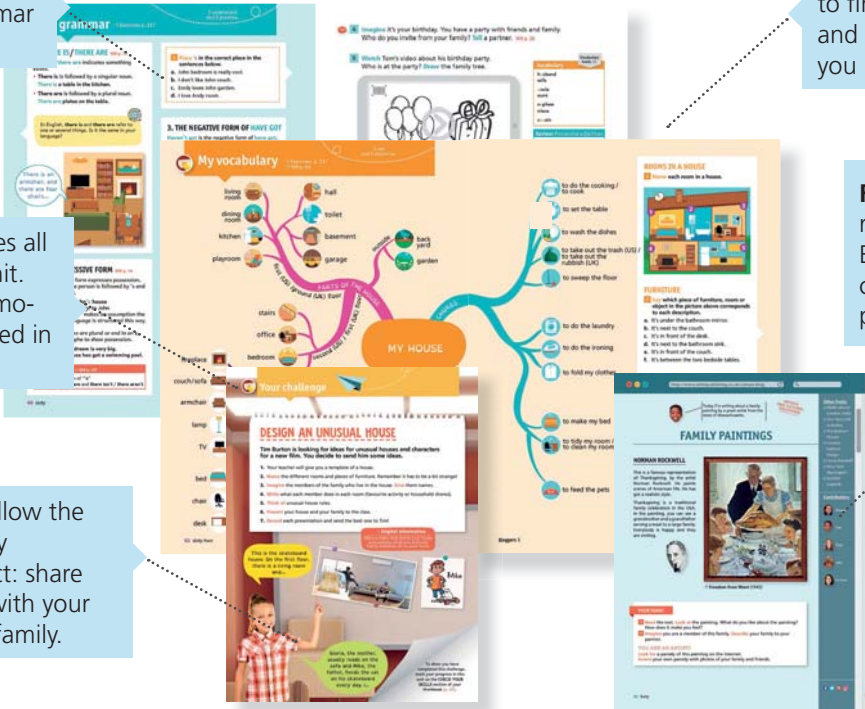

Cultural awareness: become a citizen of the world... in English, naturally!

The essential grammar and vocabulary you need to remember.

Simple explanations and exercises for each grammar point in the unit.

The mind map visualises all the vocabulary in the unit. Words are easier to memorise when they're grouped in a logical way!

Your mission! Follow the steps to successfully master your project: share the lasting result with your class, friends and family.

Observation questions to find links between English and other languages that you know.

Follow the bloggers and read and learn about the English-speaking world. Then create your own blog or presentation.

Bloggers digital versions:

NEW

DELTA hosts all digital textbooks in a Learning Management System (LMS). The digital versions allow students and teachers to engage with their course material from anywhere via smartphone, tablet, or personal computer – online and offline. Students can easily access all audio and video files or complete online exercises in their Workbook and get immediate feedback. Teachers can track the progress of each student, see an overview of class performance, communicate with individuals, send homework, and more.

Practise and Pass for Cambridge English Qualifications

By Megan Roderick & Bernardo Morales

3 steps to success: Prepare > Practise > Pass = Perfect!

Cambridge English Qualifications A2 Key; B1 Preliminary; B2 First and C1 Advanced

Practise and Pass is a series of exam preparation books for school-age students who are preparing for the Cambridge English qualifications: A2 Key, B1 Preliminary and B2 First for Schools and C1 Advanced.

Practise and Pass is for students who need to prepare and practise for the Cambridge English for Schools examinations over a relatively short period of time or alongside another coursebook. Each book provides a minimum of 40 hours of material.

Practise and Pass focuses on exam preparation in an interesting and stimulating way, providing students with the necessary exam skills, together with a wide-ranging revision of the essential topic-based vocabulary and grammatical structures required at this level.

Key features:

- Based on the current Cambridge English Qualifications specifications
- Focuses on a three-step programme: Prepare, Practise and Pass
- In the Prepare section commonly-tested grammatical and lexical structures are highlighted and practised through a range of tasks and exercises
- In the Practise section, students develop an understanding of what each exam question requires through a variety of confidence-building practice materials
- In the Pass section, the language and skills that students have acquired in the previous sections are tested in an exam-style task
- Finishes with a complete Practice Test covering all parts of the exam

Heads up Second Edition Spoken English for business

By Mark Tulip with Louise Green and Richard Nicholas

Business CEFR B1 – B2: 2 levels

Heads up Second Edition is a practical student-based business speaking course devised to meet the needs of in-work students and has been fully updated with new features. Heads up is perfect for short business English courses and addresses the overriding need in-work students have to become operational in spoken English as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Heads up addresses the lack of time these learners often have and the need for streamlined materials targeting their needs. Heads Up helps students to successfully achieve speaking skills by providing careful preparation, personalised tasks, and consistent pronunciation practice.

Heads up gets right to the heart of the students' needs and wishes. The topics encourage students to talk about their own work situations and personalised activities provide motivation.

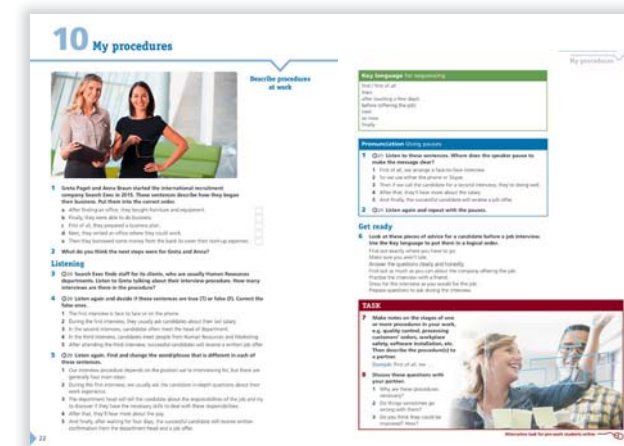

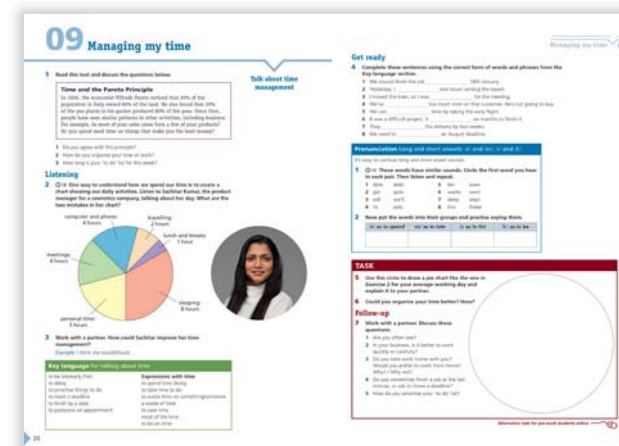

New additional downloadable material allows full-time students without work experience to complete an alternate version of the end Task/Follow-up.

Key features:

- Extensive listening and speaking practice with personalised tasks
- Regular pronunciation work, with attention to elision, stress and intonation
- Suitable for class use and some guided self-study
- All audio recordings on DELTA Augmented plus key language on flash cards

International Management English Series

Managing Change By Fiona Mee • Working Virtually By Jackie Black, Jon Dyson

Leading People By Steve Flinders • Managing Projects By Bob Dignen

Business CEFR B2 – C1: 1 level

A ground-breaking series developed by York Associates, who have been preparing professionals for international work for over 30 years.

Research shows that, in order to operate and communicate successfully in the ever-more-connected world of international business, managers need a blend of the following skills to be effective communicators:

- Relevant language skills
- People management skills
- Communicative ability
- Intercultural competence

International Management English provides comprehensive training in all of the above areas alongside the language needed to carry them out successfully. International Management English consists of four titles covering key aspects of international business operations. Each book in the series consists of eight units, with every unit offering four distinct sections:

- Discussion and listening: Engaging and relevant content in areas of international management and teamwork
- Communication skills: In addition to the familiar topics of meetings, presentations and negotiations, input and practice are also provided in conflict management, team building and giving and receiving feedback
- Professional skills: Authentic texts from management writers and thinkers provide the starting point for reflection and discussion among learners
- Intercultural competence: A focus on raising cultural awareness followed by an illustrative case study

Trainer's notes to accompany each title are available to download from www.deltapublishing.co.uk

In addition, each title in the International Management English Series provides:

- A learning diary
- A needs analysis
- Unit-by-unit glossaries of key words and phrases
- Tips for more effective language learning and how to improve performance at work
- The opportunity to develop a personal action plan

DELTA Business Communication Skills

By Susan Lowe, Louise Pile, David King

PRE-INTERMEDIATE – UPPER INTERMEDIATE CEFR B1 – B2 • 8 titles

The DELTA Business Communication Skills series is designed to help learners at Pre-intermediate and Intermediate levels to master the key communication skills required in international business English today. Each book in the series is designed for classroom use, but is also suitable for self-study.

There are eight titles in the series: Meetings, Presenting, Negotiating, Telephoning, Emailing, Socialising, Using Social Media and Business English Language Practice.

Each book in the DELTA Business Communications Skills series contains:

- A needs analysis to help learners think about their strengths and weaknesses in English and to identify and prioritise their learning needs
- A learning journal to help students monitor their learning during the course
- A review to help consolidate the language work students have done in each unit
- A reference section listing the vocabulary and useful phrases covered in each unit
- A resources section containing a range of photocopiable material
- An answer key, including suggested answers, and transcripts

Business English Language Practice aims to help learners of business English develop the grammar and vocabulary needed to participate in business effectively. The book can be used to support the rest of the DELTA Business Communication Skills series, building on topics covered there, or can be used independently for grammar and vocabulary practice.

Textploitation

By David Byrne and Mark Heffernan

General CEFR A2 – C1

Photocopiable activities to get the most out of texts

Textploitation is divided up into four different text types (articles, stories, conversations, tiny texts) and each section has a lesson from elementary to advanced. Each lesson focuses not just on one grammar point or piece of vocabulary but also looks at developing skills and training learners to be more autonomous. This is achieved through guided discovery and awareness raising activities, using the texts as a source.

Each lesson comes with a teaching tip and practical procedures designed to support teachers as they teach.

Teaching Teens

Speaking Activities

By Christian Straukamp

TEENS CEFR A1 – B2

Ask yourself

- Are your students exceptionally strong at speaking?
- Does each of your students speak more than 15 minutes of English during class?
- Do you reject frontal teaching?

If your answer is “yes” to any of these questions, please stop reading and don’t buy the book!

If none of the points above apply, you will find a multitude of methods and activities that can significantly improve the speaking competence of your students at the performative level. All methods and activities follow the simple principle “Language learning is language use!” and foster speaking proficiency in its four dimensions: fluency, accuracy, complexity and appropriacy.

Part I: categorization of activity types, with teaching tips and feedback options: milling, drilling, etc.
Part II: in-depth description of methods and bank of photocopiable resources and engaging speaking activities: buzz reading and cue cards, choral repetition, information-gap and many more ...

DELTA Readers

Our DELTA Publishing Graded Readers give learners from primary levels upwards the opportunity to use the language they've learnt in class to explore different genres and "worlds".

No matter how old you are, or how good at English you are, you boost your confidence and see how much you really do know. The annotations will help you understand the most difficult words on the page as you read, and the activities will help you both build your language skills and reflect on the content of the book.

As a teacher, you can of course use the Graded Readers in class to motivate your students to read. Carefully written and graded according to the CEFR levels, our growing number of titles dive into the worlds of fairy tales, adventure, crime, mystery, history...

Our Graded Readers are intended to develop your students' reading and language skills. We want to help you get them interested in reading and show them that language really does matter.

There are a range of activities in the books to test comprehension, improve vocabulary and grammar, as well as encouraging critical thinking.

DELTA Readers have DELTA Augmented.

Social reading for mixed ability groups!

DELTA Team Readers are the first series developed especially for heterogeneous groups. The books aim to engage all students - strong or more reluctant readers alike - with fun stories told by narrators who meet the students' individual proficiency level.

How does it work?

Each story is told from three perspectives - there are always three protagonists in the focus of the story. Each reader chooses the narrator they want to follow.

Differentiation is achieved in a subtle and natural way through choice of vocabulary, level of idiomatic language, and the length and complexity of texts - to meet the language level of the protagonists and the readers who follow their voice in the dedicated chapters. With this graded yet integrated reading experience all students are enabled to fully participate in the reading experience and contribute to discussions around the story.

Missy (A2)	9783125011335
Pip and the Umbrella Room (A1)	9783125309128
Arthur Young and the Corgi Mystery (A2)	9783125309111

Arthur Young and the Corgi Mystery

It is early Friday morning and Detective Inspector Young and his team have been called to Buckingham Palace. A truly awful crime has taken place: Skiddi, the Queen's favourite corgi, has disappeared! The team are hoping to solve the case quickly, but things turn out to be ... very puzzling and certainly far more complicated than expected. Will they find all the clues, follow the right leads and catch the culprit? Will they be in time to save Skiddi? The clock is ticking...

The magic Mirror

1588: John Dee, magician in the service of Queen Elizabeth I, tries to destroy the Spanish Armada with a spell. But nothing works. In his desperation, he tries to summon demons.

Today: School trip to the British Museum! As Noah, Ruby and Layla pass John Dee's magical utensils, Noah reaches into the open display case and touches John Dee's magical mirror. Time and space merge in an impressive cloud of smoke and fire and a fantastic adventure begins.

The Old Steam Train

While playing, Claire discovers an old steam train in a scrap yard. Excited, she tells her best friend Rosie about it. But Rosie and her little brother George are not convinced: A real steam train? In a shed? No way! When Claire sees a ghost, the three of them have to get to the bottom of it. What they discover, they never thought possible...

Missy

Tri, Jamie and Marko are outsiders - united by their love for music. Their band Eye Trouble uses the school's old music room for their rehearsals.

But strange things have been happening there lately... Things get lost, papers are suddenly scattered on the floor. And then somebody tears the whole music room apart, worse than the Rolling Stones ever did a hotel room - what is going on here?

Pip and the Umbrella Room

It is Saturday and Pip helps his father in the lost property office at Victoria Station - he runs the Umbrella Room. Quite boring - nobody is looking for lost umbrellas these days! But this Saturday is different.

When three very strange customers are looking for the same umbrella, Pip is drawn into an incredible, magical and dangerous adventure...

Methodology meets practical classroom usage with ready-to-use photocopiable materials

Activities for Inclusive Language Teaching

By Anne Margaret Smith

Embracing diversity in the ELT classroom

Activities for Inclusive Language Teaching is a collection of micro-strategies and activities designed to encourage teachers to embrace the diversity found in any language classroom, and harness it to motivate and inspire learners.

- Support for teachers as they raise awareness of barriers and exclusion
- Ideas for working towards greater cohesion in the group and a more collaborative learning environment
- Provides a holistic approach to embracing diversity in the language teaching classroom
- Recognizes that people can't be put into one box and that identities are complex and individual
- Combination of practical material and methodology training

Activities for Alternative Assessment

By Leo Selivan

Combination of practical material and methodology training

Activities for Alternative Assessment is a theoretical overview of what alternative assessment is, key characteristics, student and teacher roles, and implementation. It offers a wide range of alternative assessment tasks, techniques and activities for teachers to use in class as well as assessment activities to help teachers move away from simply teaching to the test.

There are opportunities for teachers to develop a learner-centred classroom through collaborative learning techniques. There are also suggestions for checklists and rubrics and ideas on how alternative assessment can be embedded into weekly, daily or virtually every classroom activity.

- Full of activities that show how assessment is not simply an end goal but also a learning tool
- Packed with tools to help teachers gauge learning in real-time, monitor students' progress and adjust the next instructional steps
- Includes meaningful real-world tasks
- Good balance of theory, tools and micro-strategies, practical as well as easy to integrate activities

Methodology meets practical classroom usage with ready-to-use photocopiable materials

Activities for Cooperative Learning

By Jason Anderson

Activities for Cooperative Learning goes beyond the traditional photocopiable resource books valued by busy teachers around the world. Alongside the expected ready-to-go activities and teacher's notes, readers will also find introductions to cooperative activity types that are explained in generic terms, complete with learning principles, key advantages and variations.

- Insights into the concept of cooperative learning
- Special focus on methodology and teacher development
- Highly practical, ready-to-use material
- Easily adaptable to multiple learning situations

Activities for Task-Based Learning

By Neil Anderson and Neil McCutcheon

Activities for Task-Based Learning provides teachers with a balance of theoretical insights and engaging tasks that can be used immediately. The book helps teachers ensure that meaningful communication takes priority over focusing on pre-selected language forms.

- Activities for Task-Based Learning:
- Is dedicated to tasks created especially with TBL in mind
  - Offers a variety of text reconstruction activities
  - Offers strategies for helping capture and exploit emergent language
  - Provides suggestions for designing consciousness-raising tasks

- Additional features and resources include:
- Photocopiable worksheets accompanying most tasks
  - Variation, extension, task repetition suggestions
  - Authentic recordings available for free on the DELTA Augmented app
  - Language feedback options and follow-up suggestions

DELTA Teacher Development Series

A pioneering, multi-award-winning series of books for English Language Teachers with professional development in mind, blending theory, practice and development.

The DELTA Teacher Development Series features some of the best and most expert authors in ELT, writing about fundamental areas of professional interest to teachers today. Each title in the series has three distinctive parts – A, B and C, which focus in turn on theory, practice and development:

- A: What do you need to know? What have others in the profession said or written? What is the latest information? How are things changing?
- B: What can you do? What practical activities can you carry out? How can you and your students get the most out of your teaching? How can you help yourself to help them better?
- C: How can you develop from here? What is the next step? How can you go further as a teacher in your own professional development?

Teaching English to Pre-Primary Children

By Sandie Mourão with Gail Ellis

Teaching English to Pre-Primary Children is essential for adults involved in the pre-primary education of children who are not attending formal schooling and who may not yet know how to read and write. It ensures that the first early language learning experience is a positive one which paves the way for a life-long journey into language learning.

English is Context Practical pragmatics for clear communication

By Andreas Grundtvig

The latest publication in the DELTA Teacher Development Series English is Context by Andreas Grundtvig, inspired by Geoffrey Leech's "Principles of Pragmatics".

In an eye-opening workshop on the idea of "how utterances have meaning in situations", the author found the key to the one question that concerned him most as a teacher: how could he help his students when they had learnt the words, the meaning and place in a sentence, but didn't know how these words behaved in context. And this is how English is Context started.

The book is divided into three distinctive parts – A, B and C, in turn on theory, practice and development of pragmatics in the ELT classroom. It provides a wealth of resources to help learners understand how language is used in context.
