

Media Bundles at Ernst Klett Sprachen

Discover the new Media Bundles now! The ideal package for teachers and learners who want to work flexibly with the book and a digital edition.

What is a Media Bundle?

A Media Bundle consists of the printed book and the matching or supplementary digital edition with LMS. The licence code to activate the digital edition can be found inside the book.

Your advantages:

- Digital teaching made easy: As the course instructor you can choose between teaching all or individual units online.
- Complete flexibility: Learners can use the digital edition independently or parallel to the book.
- Optional Learning Management System: Do you want to automatically evaluate homework and learners' progress? That's not a problem with a digital class!
- Access to everything at a click: In the digital edition you have direct access to all the media files such as audios and videos.

Do you want to activate a licence code?

We'll show you how, step by step!

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEACHERS

Media Bundle for teachers

To create a digital class and manage learning levels, you need a teacher licence. If you have purchased a Media Bundle, you will receive the appropriate licence code for the teacher licence free of charge from our customer service. Follow these step-by-step instructions:

1. Request a licence code:

- Take a photo of the sticker with the code inside your book.
- Email the photo with your contact details and the subject „Aktivierung Media Bundle“ to: support@klett-sprachen.de
- You will then receive an email with your teacher licence as a new licence code (book code) for teachers.

2. Log in to BlinkLearning or register:

A. You already have a BlinkLearning account?

- Log in with your access data: www.blinklearning.com
- Go to step 3 and use your book code to activate your digital edition.

B. You don't have a BlinkLearning account yet?

- Use the licence code (book code) to create a new BlinkLearning account www.blinklearning.com
- Register as a „teacher“.
- Note: Please enter the licence code (book code) without spaces.
- To activate additional book codes, go to step 3.

3. Activate further book codes

- Once you have a BlinkLearning account, you can enter additional book codes and activate books at any time.
- Click „Add Book“ in the „Books“ section.
- Note: Please enter the licence code (book code) without spaces.

4. Create a class and generate a class code:

- Create a classroom, generate a class code and send this class code to your learners.

5. Assign a book to the classroom

- After you have created the classroom, assign the book that has already been activated.
