- Dear Jennifer,
- David

David Henslow

Dear David,

I understand how you feel. It's hard when you don't have any friends. I'm sure that some of the boys and girls in your class like you. Maybe you can talk to your mother. Why don't you ask some of the boys and girls from your class to come to your house?

Yours,
Jennifer

Dear David,

I can understand how you feel. It's horrible when people make fun of you because of your clothes. You should talk to your parents. Maybe when they understand what your problem is, they'll buy you some new clothes. Clothes are important and we all like to look good.

Yours,
Jennifer

- 6 Read Steven's letter to Jennifer and Jennifer's answer. Each sentence in the letter and in the answer has a word that does not belong. Cross it out.

Dear Jennifer,

I have not talked to anybody about meet this problem because it seems so small. There is this girl in my class tired who laughs when I make a mistake in the French lesson. It place makes me nervous. And when she starts laughing, I make because more mistakes. What and shall I do?

Yours,
Steven

Dear Steven,

Don't worry because everybody does who learns French makes mistakes. I think you should talk to this can girl. Tell her should that it makes you very nervous when she laughs. I think go it's unfair of her. Ask her to why stop it. If she doesn't stop, you should talk to your French look teacher.

Yours,
Jennifer

- 7 Read the letters and the answers below. Which letter goes with which answer?

Letter A

One of my friends has been crazy about two boys from 4B since the beginning of the school year. She has even written letters to them, but they haven't written back. I know that the boys laugh about her because my brother goes to 4B. My other friends think she is stupid. I feel sorry for her. What shall I do? Shall I tell her?

Letter B

We're going on a trip to Wales next week. We have to sleep four girls to a room. Our teacher has given us a list of rooms. Three of my friends have asked me to be with them. There is one problem. If I stay with them, then I can't be with Lucy, another friend, who has asked me too. I would like to be with the others, but I feel sorry for her. What shall I do?

Letter C

A boy I know is fourteen next month. He is going to have a party at his house. He has asked all my friends to come, but he hasn't asked me. I really don't know what to do. I can't go up to him and say, "Why haven't you asked me to come to your party?" What shall I do?

Answer 1

Dear . . . ,

Find out what you really want. If you feel very sorry for this one friend, you can tell the others that you want to stay with her. The most important thing is to be open with all your friends.

Answer 2

Dear . . . ,

If you feel very sorry for your friend, tell her what you have heard. If she is your friend, you'll have to tell her. I know that it is not very easy, but it is the best thing.

Answer 3

Dear . . . ,

If you want to go, you'll have to ask him. You can't ask your friends. If he says that you can't come, you'll know that he doesn't like you. This is OK. You don't like all the boys and girls you know.

- 8 Write the dialogues.

It's a new western. I don't remember the title.

What's the film?

Yes, OK.

Would you like to come to the cinema on Friday?

John, what are you doing on Saturday?

Oh yeah, great.

I'm having a party. Would you like to come?

On Saturday? I don't really know. Why?

9 Put the dialogue between Lucy and her friend into the correct order.

- OK, I'll come with you.
- Hi. What are you doing?
- 1 Hi, Lucy.
- And in the evening we could go and see a film.
- Sounds good.
- 3 I'm going to meet some other girls in town.
- And maybe we'll meet some of the boys there.
- Sounds even better. And in the evening?

10 Fill in the missing sentences from the box.

Shall I come to your place at half past six?
 What's it all about?
 Hello, Kate.
 Yeah, sounds good. When does it start?
 When is it?

Kate: Hi, Ken.

Ken: _____

Kate: There's a play on at our school. Would you like to see it with me?

Ken: _____

Kate: On Saturday.

Ken: _____

Kate: It's a detective play. It's really thrilling.

Ken: _____

Kate: At seven.

Ken: _____

Kate: Great. Saturday at my place at 6.30.
